

CHANDLER HULSTROM

JUNIOR WEB DEVELOPER

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am a recently graduated backend Web Developer with a mind for systems. My past experiences in the construction realm have readied me for the communication and planning required to build in a virtual space.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

Turing School of Software and Design

Certification April 2020 - October 2020

- Worked on both team and solo projects in Ruby, Python, and Javascript
- Practiced Github workflow conventions

Projects

- Som-Timer
 - Part of the Backend team creating an Django driven API that fueled a React app.
 - Took 2nd place at Turing internal Demo Competition
- Sweater Weather
 - Solo project using Rails to create an API that could be used to run a travel planning app.
- Plus 4 to Initiative
 - This is a personal project focused on helping new DnD players with combat. This also uses Rails.
