

Richard DeSilvey

Employment History

Freelance Artist, Lakewood

NOVEMBER 2017 – FEBRUARY 2021

Designed and produced products for clients with Oil Paint, and Charcoal.

Software Developer, Workiva, Denver

JUNE 2017 – OCTOBER 2017

Involved with the development of a frontend product as part of a larger product WDesk for clients to easily submit and file with the SEC working with EDGAR and XBRL services.

Programmed with Dart/ReactJS following the FLUX design, JavaScript, and SASS with a team of eight others using agile/SCRUM. JIRA, Slack, Git/Github for collaboration and project organization.

Jr. Full Stack Engineer, Denver

JANUARY 2014 – APRIL 2016

Applied necessary software engineering practices to build and deploy a web-based application called MREA (Millionaire Real-estate Agent) Business Plan. MREA was implemented with the LAMP stack using ReactJS for the front-end.

Worked closely with client and product users to define and implement user stories.

Education

Backend Engineer, Turing School of Software Development and Design, Denver

MARCH 2021

Turing School is an accredited industry leading,online computer software development school to receive a certification on the backend program.

Computer Science, Metropolitan University of Denver

Projects

Drink This!

Git repository: <https://github.com/drink-this>

A cocktail recommendation app that recommends cocktail drinks based on the ratings of other users as well as your own ratings. It uses data modeling in the recommendation model to power the application's core. Involved mostly with the Frontend development with some backend experience as well.

Details

Colorado
720-384-7347
rdesilvey@gmail.com

Links

Github
LinkedIn
Stackoverflow

Skills

Bootstrap
HTML5
CSS
ReactJS
JavaScript
Ruby/ Ruby on Rails
RSpec
Model-View-Controller
FLUX
PHP
Java
PostgreSQL
SQL
Git / Github
TDD